2nd Annual Great Salt Cup Sled Hockey Tournament

February 26th, 2007: It is no secret to sled hockey fans around the world that sled hockey is an exciting, fast-paced, and dynamic game quickly growing in popularity. The sport allows people with physical disabilities affecting their lower limbs to play the sport of hockey. Despite the use of adaptive equipment the game follows the same format as traditional hockey.

This year the National Ability Center will host the 2nd Annual Great Salt Cup Sled Hockey tournament at the Park City Ice Arena March 8th, 9th, and 10th. Teams will attend the tournament from all over the U.S. including Pheonix, AZ, Chicago, Il., and Colorado. In addition to out of state team's the National Ability Center's Golden Eagles are eager to play a tournament in their home rink.

Game times are March 8th from 7:45pm & 9:15pm, March 9th from 7:30am & 9:00am and 7:30pm & 9:00pm. The Consolation game will be help on March 10th from 8:30am and the Championship game will be held at 10:00am. All games are free and open to the public.

For more information on the Great Salt Cup visit the National Ability Center website at www.DiscoverNAC.org or contact Sled Hockey Program Manager Lauren Artesani at laurena@DiscoverNAC.org.
