National Ability Center Bobsled Team goes International

The National Ability Center bobsled team has been invited to participate in the North American International Race Series. The series is an International Federation of Bobsled and Toboggan (FIBT) sanctioned event. Athletes Matt Profitt who has a below the knee amputation and Aaron Lanningham who has paraplegia will compete in the races.

The first two races of the series will take place in Park City, UT at the Utah Olympic Park on February 8th and 9th. The second set of races will be held in Calgary, Canada on February 16th and 17th. This will be the first time that the National Ability Center bobsled team will compete out of the state of Utah not to mention out of the country.

The National Ability Center bobsled program is the only adaptive bobsled program for people with disabilities in the United States of America. For more information on the National Ability Center bobsled team or program please contact Lauren Rayner at 435.200.0983 or by email laurenr@DiscoverNAC.org.
