Biography:

Playboy is a 14.2 hand sorrel quarter horse gelding donated by Colleen Hoffman in November of 2006. Playboy has become a bombproof legacy at the NAC and a favorite of many. Masha, a rider with Cerebral Palsy rides Playboy every week. Masha's confidence and riding skills have dramatically improved as Playboy takes her for independent rides around the arena. While Masha trots, an instructor must hold her weaker right foot in the stirrup; however, Playboy has learned to respond to her voice commands as she tells him to walk or trot.

Playboy came to us with a reputation of being a lady's man and he has not lost that reputation here at the NAC. He is not only a favorite of the mares, but also the little girls. Because of his calm nature and willingness he is ridden by adults, teenagers, and children, especially little girls. He takes care of each rider who ends up on his back and provides a worry-free lesson to all our participants.

The Hoffmans also recently donated their three-horse aluminum trailer, a much-needed item for the program. Thank you to the Hoffman's for their many years' generosity and service to our program.
